What are cookies?

Cookies are small text files stored on your device when you visit a website. They help the Site function properly, remember your preferences, and, where applicable, understand how visitors use the Site.

Cookies used on this Site

| Type                    | Purpose                                                                         | Consent required?  |
|-------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------|
| Strictly necessary      | Enable core Site functionality (navigation, security)                           | No — always active |
| Analytics / performance | [e.g., Google Analytics] — measure traffic and usage to improve the Site | Yes                |
| Functional              | Remember preferences such as language                                           | Yes                |
| Marketing / advertising | [if applicable] Track visits to deliver relevant marketing               | Yes                |

Nota: esta tabla debe completarse con las cookies/scripts reales instalados en el sitio (nombre, proveedor, finalidad y duración) una vez que estén definidos — por ejemplo, si usan Google Analytics, Meta Pixel, etc.

Managing your consent

On your first visit, a cookie banner lets you accept or reject non-essential cookies. You can change your preferences at any time through the banner or your browser settings. Rejecting non-essential cookies does not restrict your ability to browse the Site or request a quote.

Third-party cookies

Some cookies may be placed by third-party services embedded in the Site (e.g., WhatsApp, social media plug-ins, analytics providers). Those third parties are responsible for their own cookie and privacy practices.
